'Acquire skills to lead true and happy life'

LAJUR, Aug 23
 "Our thinking process should not be restricted as there are many aspects of life. Education is essential for development of thinking. In fact, imagination is greater than knowledge and high quality research and knowledge is required for development. The advance of time enables us to study new technology. We must get confused. Find what is useful for us. Don't what to live and live in an enlightened society. We should prefer to think through education. Through increasing creative thinking and understanding power, we must give impetus to research." Dr. Ajit Muljekar said.

He was delivering his keynote address at a seminar on New Education Policy 2020 held at Sunshadevi Deshmukh Senior College, Latur on Tuesday. Principal Dr. Ajay Patil, Academy president Dr. Savita Keerte, head of Quality Assurance Anita Garkwad and coordinator Dadakant Limbhe were present on the stage.
