Course Overview

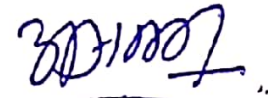

The Department of Political Science conducted a Value Added Course on "Political Socialization" taking into consideration the need of the hour. Modern political science has introduced many new concepts. Political socialization is one such concept. Modern political scientists have taken up this limitation as an important factor in the political process and started studying it.

A major feature of modern political science is said to be that it is strongly influenced by an interdisciplinary approach. The study of different social sciences can be mutually beneficial and helpful. Political socialization is one such concept in sociology and it is a political process and to study how this concept is benefited in shaping the political process is one of the many purposes behind choosing the subject of political socialization.
